Chairman Towns Statement on Arbitron CEO Michael Skarzynski

WASHINGTON – Chairman Edolphus “Ed” Towns (D-NY) today released the following statement upon learning that Arbitron CEO Michael Skarzynski may have provided false testimony during the full committee hearing on December 2, 2009 titled, “ Will Arbitron's Personal People Meter Silence Minority Owned Radio Stations ?”

“Today I received information that the CEO of Arbitron, Michael Skarzynski, may have provided false testimony at a December 2, 2009 hearing of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. As Chairman, I am committed to protecting the integrity of the Committee's proceedings, and will review this matter to determine whether the Committee was intentionally misled and whether further action is warranted.”
